Re: Remacor, Inc. Superfund Site
West Pittsburg, Lawrence County, PA

Dear Ms. Winter Prisk:

I am writing in response to your letter to the above referenced company dated November 23, 2010, that was received by this company's United States counsel on November 29, 2010. The following are responses to the questions posed on Enclosure E:

1. Almamet GmbH does not possess the documents referenced in this information request, nor does Almamet GmbH have any information regarding the contents of those documents. However, Almamet GmbH understands that Joseph R. Jackman may have such information and will be providing responses to a similar set of information requests from the EPA directed to Mr. Jackman. As discussed in Almamet GmbH's response to Question No. 3, Almamet USA, Inc. employed Mr. Jackman as a consultant with respect to the acquisition of equipment and furniture previously owned by Remacor, Inc. In connection with those activities, Almamet GmbH understands that Almamet USA, Inc. did not direct or otherwise authorize Mr. Jackman to remove or take any action with respect to Remacor documents/records located at the West Pittsburgh Site. Any such activities conducted by Mr. Jackman in relation to the Remacor, Inc. documents at the West Pittsburgh Site were outside the scope of Mr. Jackman's authority to act on behalf of Almamet USA, Inc.

2. Almamet GmbH does not possess the documents referenced in this information request, nor does Almamet GmbH have any information regarding the contents of those documents. However, Almamet GmbH understands that Joseph R. Jackman may have such information and will be providing responses to a similar set of information requests from the EPA directed to Mr. Jackman. As discussed in Almamet GmbH's response to Question No. 3, Almamet USA, Inc. employed Mr. Jackman as a consultant with respect to the acquisition of equipment and furniture previously owned by Remacor, Inc. In connection with those activities, Almamet GmbH understands that Almamet USA, Inc. did not direct or otherwise authorize Mr. Jackman to remove or take any action with respect to Remacor documents/records located at the West Pittsburgh Site. Any such activities conducted by Mr. Jackman in relation to the Remacor, Inc. documents at the West Pittsburgh Site were outside the scope of Mr. Jackman's authority to act on behalf of Almamet USA, Inc.

3. Almamet USA is a wholly owned subsidiary of Almamet GmbH. Neither Almamet GmbH nor Almamet USA had business dealings with Remacor, Inc. between 2006 and the present. In the fall of 2008, Almamet gmbH desired to build in the United States a magnesium granular and powder production plant. It was at all times the intention of Almamet gmbH to form a wholly owned US subsidiary to actually conduct the business related to the project. To that end, on July 27, 2009, Almamet USA, Inc. was incorporated in Ohio. Joseph R. Jackman was hired as a consultant for the U.S. project. He was first hired in the fall of 2008 in this role by Almamet gmbH. When Almamet USA, Inc. was incorporated, Mr. Jackman was hired as a consultant by the newly formed company. As part of his consultant duties, Mr. Jackman assisted Almamet gmbH and Almamet USA, Inc. in acquiring certain equipment and furniture formerly owned by Remacor, Inc. that remained at the West Pittsburgh Site from Huntington National Bank. These assets were purchased by Almamet gmbH on September 1, 2009 and immediately transferred to Almamet USA, Inc.

4. Almamet GmbH does not possess the documents referenced in this information request, nor does Almamet GmbH have any information regarding the contents of those documents. However, Almamet GmbH understands that Joseph R. Jackman may have such information and will be providing responses to a similar set of information requests from the EPA directed to Mr. Jackman. As discussed in Almamet GmbH's response to Question No. 3, Almamet USA, Inc. employed Mr. Jackman as a consultant with respect to the acquisition of equipment and furniture previously owned by Remacor, Inc. In connection with those activities, Almamet GmbH understands that Almamet USA, Inc. did not direct or otherwise authorize Mr. Jackman to remove or take any action with respect to Remacor documents/records located at the West Pittsburgh Site. Any such activities conducted by Mr. Jackman in relation to the Remacor, Inc. documents at the West Pittsburgh Site were outside the scope of Mr. Jackman's authority to act on behalf of Almamet USA, Inc.
